Housing and support for people in need

PRESS RELEASE

6th August 2008

CRAFTS ON SALE AT THE MALTHOUSE PROJECT

On Saturday 16th August 2008, a Craft Fair is being held at The Malthouse Project, Elsey's Yard, Bury St Edmunds from 10am – 3pm.

There will be stalls in the courtyard and in the stunning Beamed Room selling an array of crafts, including silk flowers, handmade cards and bespoke wedding gifts.

Entry is free to this event. Whilst at The Malthouse Project there is also the opportunity to go on a self-led tour around the former 17th century maltings and to visit the Kiln Café to enjoy a hot drink or bite to eat.

If you would like to book a pitch for £6 for the day, please contact Simon Johnson, Catering & Events Manager at The Malthouse Project on tel: 01284 732562 or email info@themalthouseproject.co.uk.

Notes to editors:

The Malthouse Project is owned by St Matthew Housing (SMH), a charity and housing association, which provides accommodation for people who are homeless or unsuitably housed. The Malthouse Project officially opened in September 2007 providing a café, heritage centre, community rooms to hire and accommodation for local people with a general housing need. The Project also provides opportunities for residents and services users from SMH and other support agencies to gain work experience and training qualifications in the café. All income generated from The Malthouse Project funds the social objectives of the project.
